8th December 2017

Message from Head teacher: Thank you to everyone involved and everyone who attended our performances of 'Carmen'. It has been hard work but hugely rewarding. I don't think anyone involved will hear the music from the opera without thinking about the Fourlanesend performance. I'm also looking forward to hearing our choir sing with the children from Millbrook School at the Mount Edgcumbe Christmas Fayre tomorrow - full uniform please for all involved.

Class News

Class Lynher - Last night was our performance of 'Carmen' at TCC. It was really fun! We loved seeing everyone in their smart clothes. We have also been doing some enjoyable science experiments about thermal insulators and conductors. By Ellie & Tilly

Class Tamar - We have been investigating plants by placing plants in different places - in the fridge, freezer, dark & light etc. We will be waiting to see what will happen to them and in what conditions they grow the best. We have continued our mechanical dancing in PE. By Autumn & Talie

Year 2 - We have been looking at poetry and made up actions for each line of a poem - Mrs Illingworth filmed us doing it. Today we have been concentrating on rhyme. By Josie & Finnlay

Year 1 - We have been practising and performing 'Carmen'. We have also been learning about capital letters and full stops. By Billy

Foundation - We have been playing with our pirate ship. We have learnt new sounds in phonics and been learning about magnets. We have also done lots of singing for our nativity. By Riley & Henry

Christmas Emporium - The Gallery at Maker Heights

Open 9:30am - 4:30pm on 8, 9, 10th Dec, 15, 16, 17th Dec - Nissen Hut Space (to the left of The Canteen entrance). A beautiful collection of local paintings, jewellery, gifts, crafts, ceramics, leatherwork, glass, cards, prints and much more. Come and support local makers and artists.

Lost Property

Ellie.D has lost a pair of size 12/13 turquoise trainers. They don't have a name in. If found, please hand in at the office. Thank you.
