25th November 2016

Message from Head teacher: As you can see our flags didn't survive storm Angus. We have them and the artist who supported us with them is touching them up and has found a copier who can print some more from our originals. We just need stronger poles. I do know a few parents had ideas. I'll be in touch once we have our flags again.

Rame Peninsula Beach Care

Wildlife/kayaking talk and RPBC AGM at 7pm on November 25 at the Congregational Hall, Garrett St, Cawsand. Rupert Kirkwood, who has kayaked all 1,154 miles of all the coast, rivers, creeks and estuaries of the south west, will be giving an amazing talk about his adventures and encounters with incredible wildlife along the way, including everything from whales to swimming badgers. There will also be the Rame Peninsula Beach Care AGM, where you can find out all about everything we've been up to over the past year - and what we hope to achieve in the future. Teas, coffees and biscuits available.

Wet Play Resources

We are in desperate need of resources for all ages, for wet play times. Any old games, puzzles etc would be gratefully received. Thank you.

Boots in School

Children are welcome to wear boots to school and in the playground, however, NOT for the whole day at school. If your child comes to school in boots please ensure they have a pair of shoes to change in to.

FoFLES Lights Switch On - Thursday 1st December

You are warmly invited by FoFLEs to attend the Christmas tree lights switch on, refreshments and a few stalls, including Santa's Grotto will be available from 3:30pm. FoFLEs are asking for contributions of cakes and mince pies.

Please note this is a FoFLES led event. Parents and carers need to accompany their children. Teachers attending will not be there to supervise your children.

School Council News

Thank you to everyone for all their efforts last week for Children In Need. We raised a fantastic £251.85. On Friday 16th December we are having a Christmas Jumper Day for Save the Children. Everyone can wear a Christmas jumper for a donation of £1 per family.

Class News

Class Lynher - In tag rugby we have been practicing our passing skills. We have been writing and typing up our own stories of a genre of our choice. By Eddie & Harry

Class Tamar - In RE we are learning about the Quran and have been looking at the symbols used in Arabic writing. We drew our own symbols related to Islam. We will soon be starting our new topic—railways. We wrote diary entries pretending to be Victorian children about to go on a train for the very first time. In science we learnt how electrons, neutrons and protons create electricity. By Ruby, Jorden & Ronnie

Class Cremyll - In English we have been editing our letters to The Jolly Postman. We have also been thinking about work that we are proud of to show in the Pupil Voice assembly on Monday. By Ollie & Lauren

Class Plym - We have been counting with Fred the frog on his lilypads, starting from different numbers. We have done a treasure hunt using positional language and have also been writing letters to different characters from stories in The Jolly Postman. By Theo & Cooper

School Christmas Decorations

Please can we have any no longer used Christmas decorations for our school Christmas tree and to decorate the classrooms (not lights). Thank you.

Alice in Wonderland

Our production of Alice in Wonderland will be at 2pm & 6pm on Monday 12th December in Kingsand Community Hall. Tickets details to follow.

Please can all costumes for Alice in Wonderland be ready and in school by Friday 2nd December.
