21st October 2016

Message from Head teacher: I hope you all have a restful half term. Thank you all for coming to parents' evening - if you have not managed to attend, the teachers will be in touch during the first week back. The children have all had a good experience of how life was in a Victorian school and even ate their lunch in silence! Please keep your eye on the website for photographs from our Victorian day.

Jobs That Need Doing Around School

We have some road signs that need putting up outside. If anybody can help, please let the office know. Thank you.

THANK YOU!

Thank you very much to Carmen, Mandy & Matt who came and did some gardening this week and sorted out our EYFS area. Thanks also to Nigel for removing the notice board and to Tim who has offered to help with the welding of our basketball hoop. Special thanks to Carmen for rallying all the support, it is very much appreciated - we know a working party is planning on coming in on 3rd November to finish the allotments and other odd jobs around school.

Class News

Class Lynher - In Victorian day today we have been using ink pens and scratchers to do our writing. They take a lot of getting used to. We have also been learning to sew and are trying to sew our initials. Yesterday we played tag rugby and took part in a match which was fun. By Quinn & Molly

Class Tamar - Using inkwells, we have had to write in Victorian style handwriting. In music, we have been learning to write the musical notes and learning rhymes to help us remember the order of musical notes. We have been applying our Victorian school rules today which has been interesting. By Kacie, Alice & Daisy

Class Cremyll - We had the award ceremony for our Marine award and enjoyed sharing our learning with our parents. The film was brilliant. By Reece & Ollie

Class Plym - We had a coronation party for Queen Victoria and made a Victoria sponge, crowns and the British flag. It was nice showing our work to parents. We learnt how to sew on Victorian day, and enjoyed wearing pinnies whilst dressed up as Victorian children. By IP & Chloe
