WHO IS THE PROPHET MUHAMMAD AND
WHY IS HE IMPORTANT TO MUSLIMS

Prophet Muhammad is the messenger of Allah

Muhammad and the cat

It was a very hot day. Muhammad sat down in the shade of a date-palm tree and began talking to his friends. He was wearing a long cloak which covered the ground when he sat down. When he went to stand up he noticed that a mother cat had brought her kittens and placed them on the corner of his cloak. The mother started to feed her kittens. Muhammad looked at them and gave thanks to Allah who created all living creatures. Then he . . .

Pause . . . ask 'What do you think he did?'

He asked for a knife. Carefully he cut around his cloak where the cat and her kittens were lying and then without disturbing them he walked quietly away.

I think he gave Muhammad the message that everyone should be kind

He used his kindness value when he didn't disturb the kittens

Peace be upon Him.

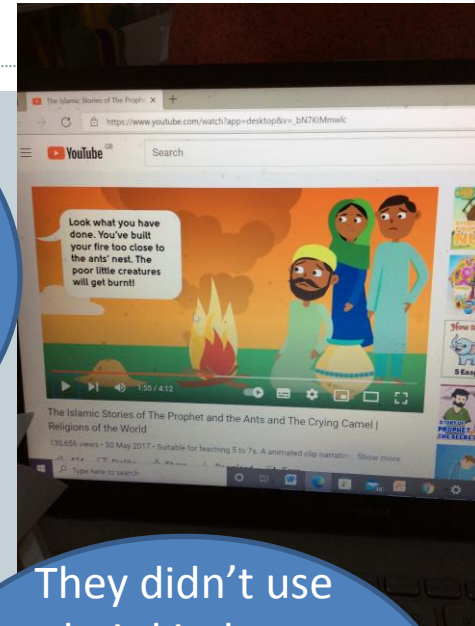

What Do We Say after We Mention His Name?

Stories about the Prophet Muhammad and what they teach Muslim's

The stories teach that they should care for all of Allah's creatures, even tiny ones like ants

They didn't use their kindness value leaving the camel in the hot sun. They did at the end.

The 5 pillars of Islam

Giving money to poor people is like our kindness value

Fasting would make me feel super hungry!

Do they pray on their mat five times a day?

What do we know?

We had two statements and we had to stand on the side of the room with the statement that we thought would be the most important to Muslim people.

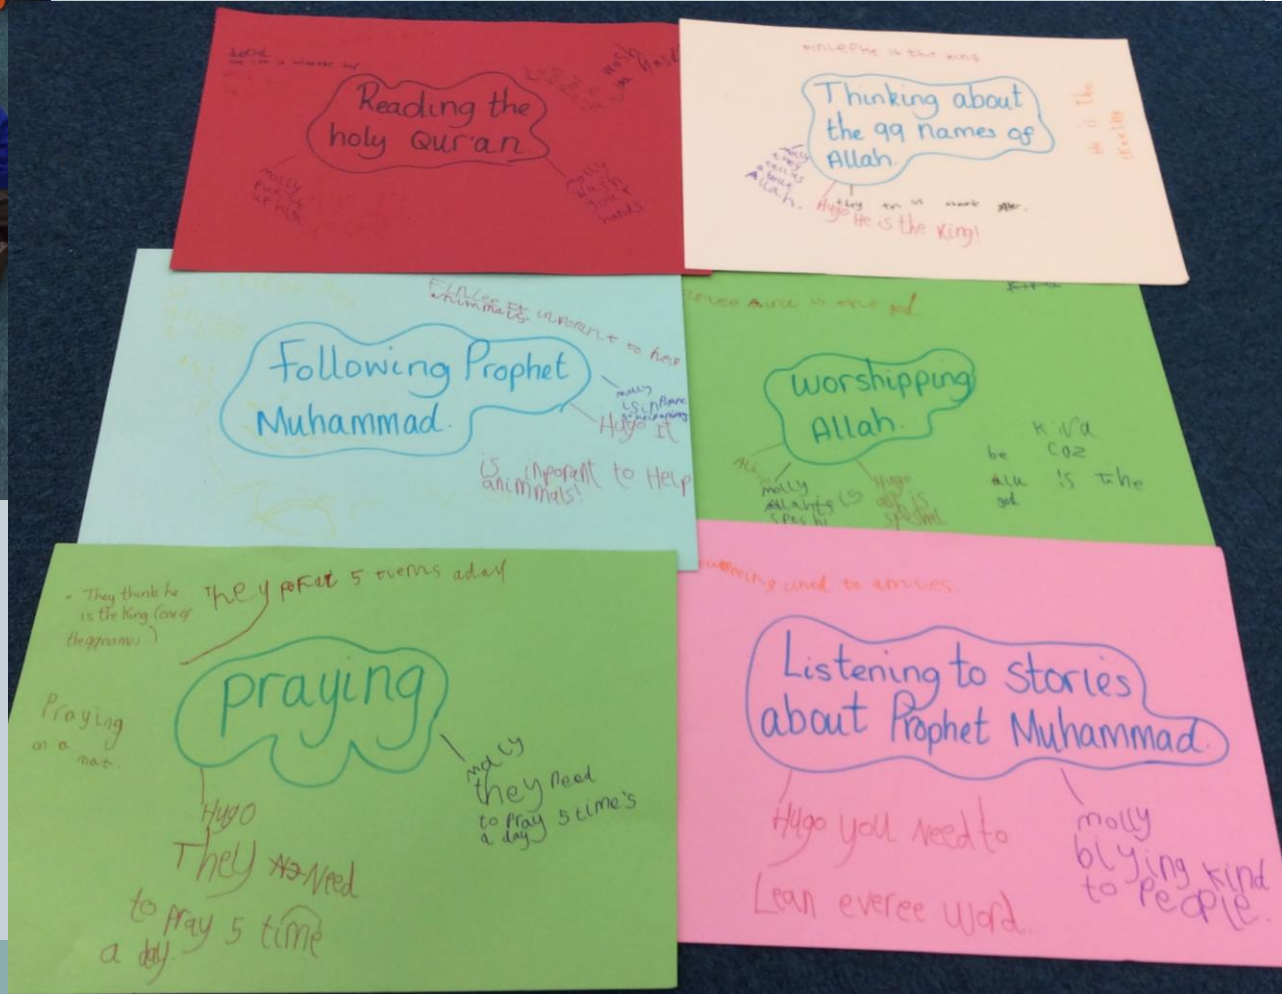

Praying is more important because it makes them feel closer to their God.

Reading the Qur'an is more important to Muslim's because it tells them how to live their life

Collaborative piece answering why key points are important to Muslim people.

What I have learnt before:

- The Muslim God is called Allah.
- We must never draw Allah.
- Allah has 99 names.

Knowledge within Islam

I know that the prophet Muhammad is the messenger of the Muslim God, Allah.

I know that religious stories are meant to inspire people how to behave and live.

Skills

I can make links between Islam and Christianity, finding similarities.

I can talk about important figures in Islamic religion.

Endpoint:
