

GIVE YOUR CRAYONS A BREAK FROM BOREDOM

Poor Duncan just wants to do some colouring, but all his crayons have quit! Why not give Duncan a hand, and colour this poster in a really imaginative way!

Red's tired of colouring in fire engines
and apples

Blue needs
from all that water

Green is quite happy

but yellow
and orange
aren't talking to each other...

What are you going to do to keep YOUR crayons from getting bored?

Why not colour this poster in the craziest way you can think? What about a green sea, or an orange whale, or a blue fire engine?
Your crayons might be bored, but if you try, we think you can keep everyone happy, just like Duncan!
