How do I say my preference about
fruits in French?

Class Tamar

Spring 2 2023

We learnt how to name (with accurate pronunciation) and remember the first five fruits in French.

Une peche and une banane are very similar to English just pronounced differently.

The 's' in French is silent.

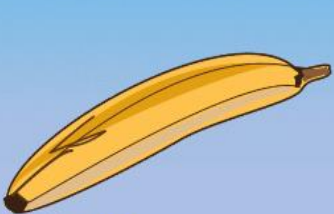

une pomme

une pêche

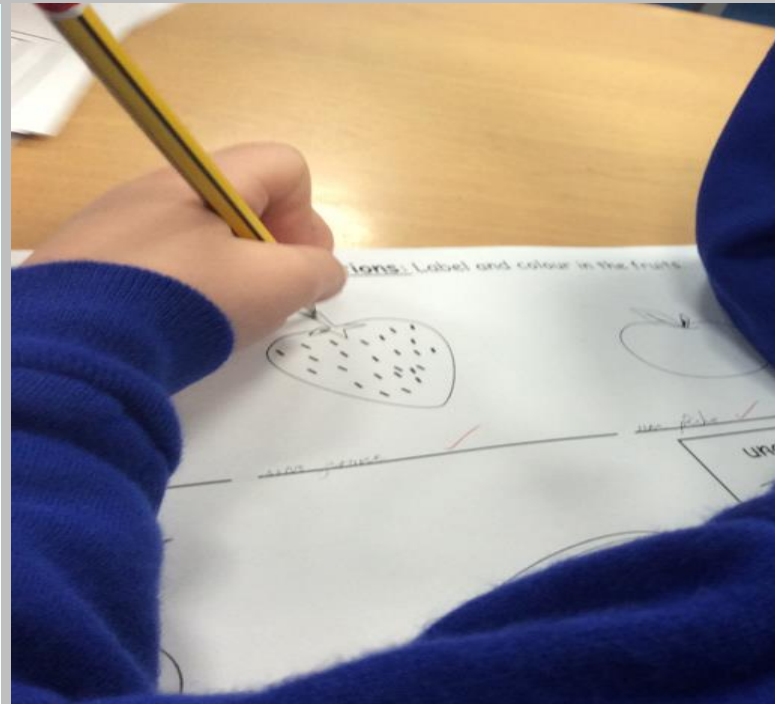

une fraise

une banane

une cerise

We recapped the five fruits from the last lesson and learnt how to name (with accurate pronunciation) and remember another five fruits in French.

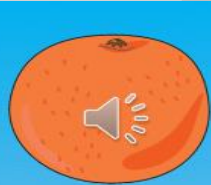

I find un abricot, une orange and un kiwi the easiest to remember as it's the same as English.

une and un have a different pronunciation.

We learnt how to say the ten fruits introduced in the previous two lessons in plural form.

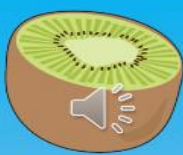

une orange

une prune

une poire

un kiwi

un abricot

une pomme

une fraise

une pêche

une banane

une cerise

Plural means when there is more than one of something.

une or un is for one fruit, les is for more than one.

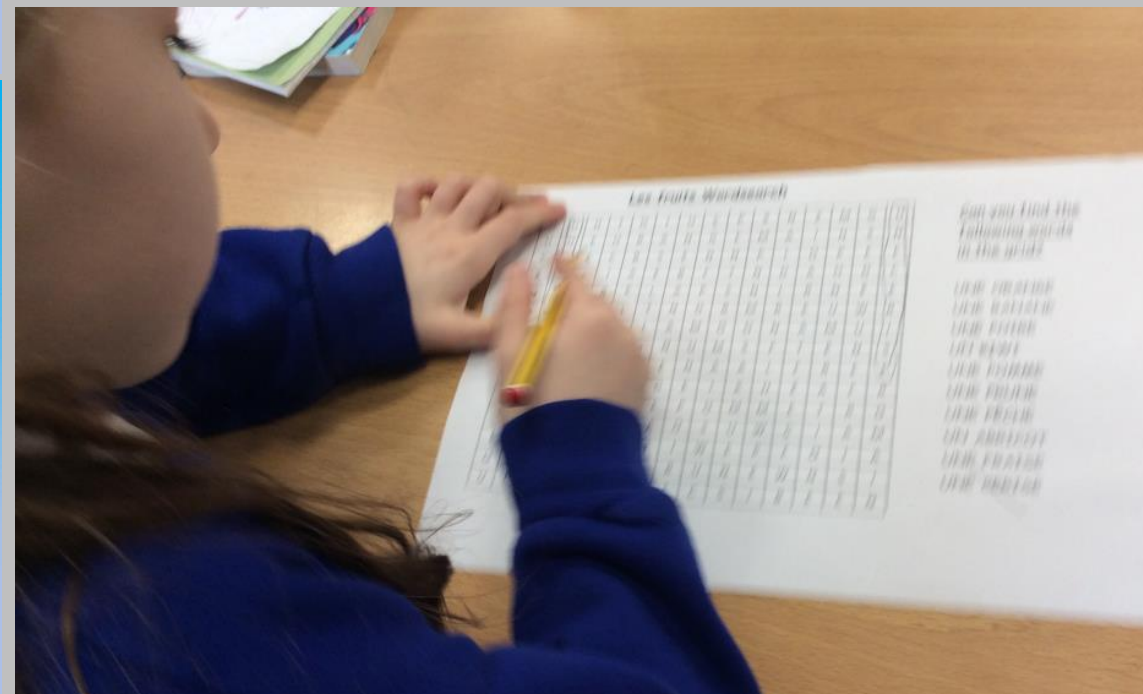

les pêches

les pommes

les fraises

les prunes

les abricots

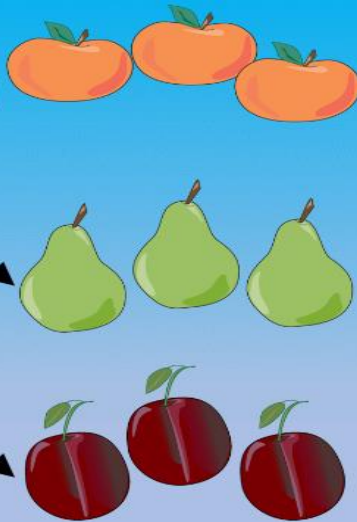

We learnt how to express an opinion using the fruits we have learnt. We used the positive structure 'I like...'

J'aime les poires. 🔊

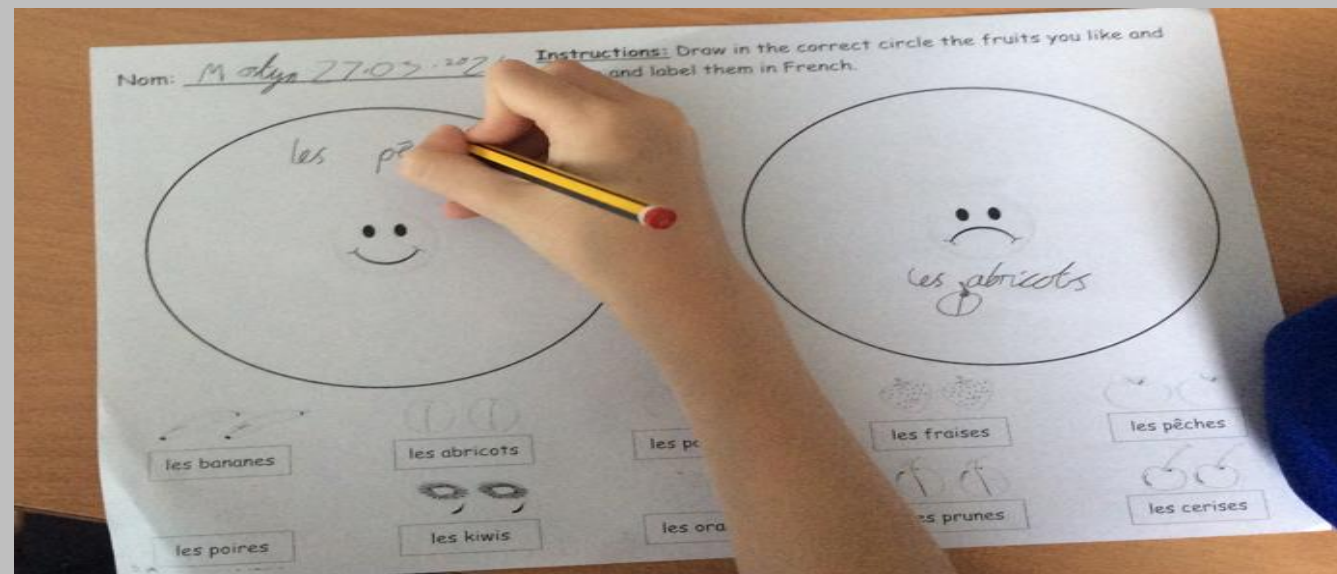

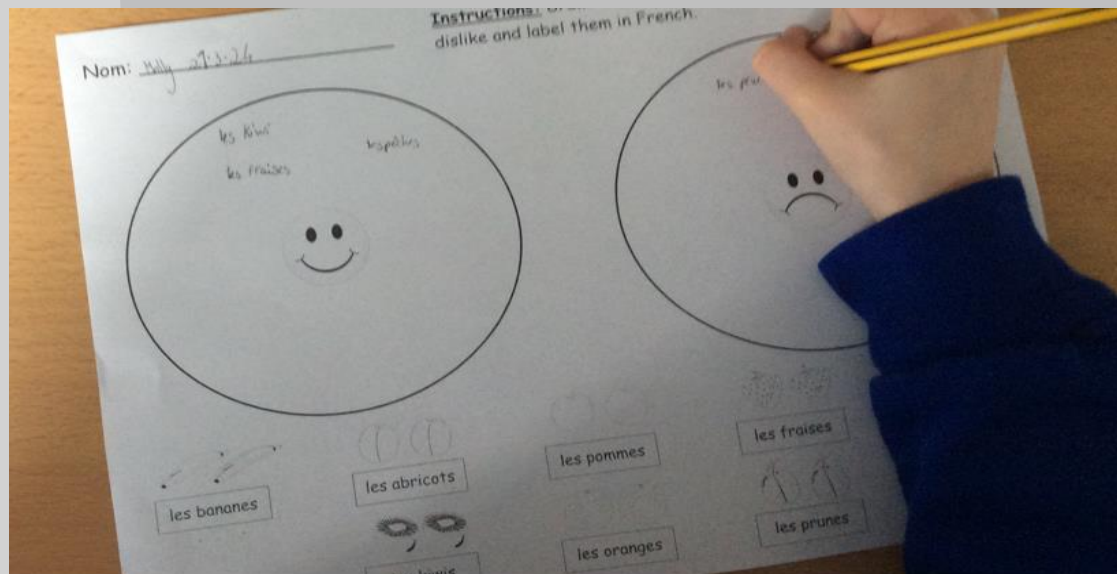

J'aime les prunes. 🔊

J'aime les pêches. 🔊

J'aime means 'I like'. J'aime les bananes!

We have to use the plural (les) for the fruit when we say what we like.

We recapped on how to express an opinion using 'I like...'. We then used the negative structure 'I do not like...' to continue to express our opinions in French. We finished the lesson by asking our partner their opinion on a fruit in French using the question 'Est-ce que tu aimes...?'

Your partner will ask:
"Est-ce que tu aimes...?"
plus a fruit in French.

You will answer with:
 "Oui, j'aime..."
plus the fruit in French
or
 "Non, je n'aime pas..."
plus the fruit in French.

We still need to remember to use the plural form when we say what we don't like.

Je n'aime pas means 'I do not like' in French.
