Celebrating Differences

I understand that sometimes we make assumptions based on what people look like.
I understand what influences me to make assumptions based on how people look.

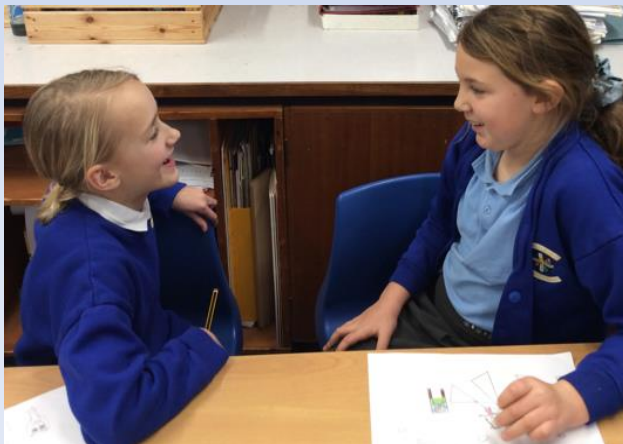

When we are playing we should make sure we include everyone.

We should accept that everyone is different in different ways.

Even though someone looks different it doesn't mean they are a bad person.

I know that sometimes bullying is hard to spot and I know what to do if I think it is going on but I'm not sure.

I know that I need to go to someone I trust if I know someone is being bullied.

If you know someone is being bullied, you have to let someone know who can help, even if you're told not to!

I can tell you why witnesses sometimes join in with bullying and sometimes don't tell.

If you are friends with the bully then you might be scared to tell someone about it in case you lose your friend.

I can identify what is special about me and value the way in which I am unique.
