

Knowledge within Humanism		Exciting Books	Subject Specific Vocabulary
Humanists are people who shape their own lives in the here and now, because they believe it's the only life they have. They make sense of the world through logic, reason, and evidence, and always seek to treat those around them with warmth, understanding, and respect.			Conscience	A person's moral sense of right and wrong, viewed as acting as a guide to one's behaviour.
There are connections between Humanist and Christians ideas about being good and how people live.			Morals	Standards of behaviour; principles of right and wrong.
It might be helpful yet sometimes difficult to follow a moral code.			Values	One's judgement of what is important in life.
			Virtues	A quality considered morally good or desirable in a person
Skills			Personal Development: Self awareness and reflection on own views. Curiosity through questioning. Valuing others, establishing appropriate moral codes. Social opportunities to consider values which are or should be part of society. Making sense of the world around them. Jobs you could do: public speaker, religious leader, teacher.
Identify values studied and link to your own views.
To give good reasons for your views
Articulate own responses of issues studied.
		Our Endpoint
		I can describe what matters most to Humanists and Christians.
		What I have learnt before: Christians and how to live: 'What would Jesus do?'

