Easter Bonnets - Thursday 28th March

Advanced notice of this year's theme for our Easter bonnets - Careers!
For our new families who aren't aware of what we do - each year we ask all children to make an Easter bonnet with a particular theme as part of our Easter Celebration.

Class News

Class Lynher - In PSHE we had a visit from Trudi who is coming in for the next four weeks to talk about health and wellbeing. We started with some breathing exercises and learnt about STOPP. In English we have been writing imitation poems based on the Jabberwocky. We have made up our own foes and have had fun writing nonsense words. It is harder than you think. In science we have been learning about the heart and the blood. Your heart is a muscle that pumps your blood around your body. Last night some of us were part of a giant choir singing sea shanties at Liskeard Town Hall for Songfest 2024. We used lots of confidence and really enjoyed ourselves. By Millie & Morgan

Class Tamar - In computing this week we have been looking at branching databases and using it to classify minibeasts. In science, we looked at circuits and what makes a complete or an incomplete circuit, including conductors and insulators. In French, we learnt five more fruits and in RE, we revised what we already know about Christianity. By Maya & Billy

Class Cremyll - We have been sequencing the Easter story in RE and in science we have been learning about the polar habitat - it's cold! In PE we have been passing a ball using a chest pass. Some of us didn't drop the ball at all. By Clara, Jack & Harriet

Class Plym - We went on a nature walk and used masking tape to make nature bracelets. We also saw the pigs! In PE we got to pass the giant ball to a friend and were also travelling in different ways including rolls and leaps. We have read the Easter story and in PSHE we looked at what foods were healthy and unhealthy. By Amy & Theo

RNLI Event

The RNLI will be celebrating its 200th anniversary this Sunday 3rd March at the Royal William Yard from 10am to 3pm. The Plymouth lifeboats will be there with HM Coastguard, Fire and Rescue as well as National Coastguard Institute, Police and Shanty singing. Everyone welcome.

Music Lessons

Due to the whole school trip to Eden Project next Friday, Jo Ballard will be in on Monday 4th March instead.
